

Joann Doty

Senior Regional Association Manager
SUHRCO Residential Properties, LLC

Joann Doty is adept at guiding and directing Condominium Homeowner Associations, enabling them to function effectively while adding value to their communities.

Joann's expertise in Landlord Tenant Law, as well as state and federal Fair Housing Laws, complement her educational background. Joann holds an associate's degree in Business Law from Edmonds Community College.

Joann began her career in property management in 1991. She has earned many accreditations and designations in that time. They include a Washington State Real Estate License, Accredited Residential Manager designation (ARM®); Certified Manager of Community Associations (CMCA®); Association Management Specialist Designation® (AMS®). She is currently in the process of completing her Professional Community Association Manager (PCAM®) certification.

While working as an on-site manager, Joann, in cooperation with local and national law enforcement agencies brought the Crime Free Multi-Housing Program to Tukwila, WA. This program was the first of its kind in the State of Washington.

Joann brings a wealth of professional knowledge and personal experience to our team. She is well versed in what communities need to be in compliance with laws and how to achieve their particular goals. The Homeowners Associations she works with appreciate her role as their Community Association Manager. She looks forward to working with your organization as well.
