

Sharon Rystad

"Born and raised in the Pacific Northwest, Sharon lives and works in the community she has always cared for. With her commitment to leading by example, forward thinking, and finding strategic solutions, she is a strong addition to the SUHRCO team.

As an industry professional, Sharon approaches her work with a strong focus on governance, project planning and building a sense of community. She is passionate about her work ethic, diligence, and positive contribution to the work place. She feels strongly that success can always be obtained through thoughtful examination of the task at hand as well as perseverance and a dedicated commitment to finding a resolution.

In her free time Sharon is an avid skier who also enjoys travel, yoga, and exploring the Snoqualmie River Valley."
