Angie Giroux
Regional Portfolio Manager
SUHRCO Residential Properties, LLC

Angie brings over 27 years of multifaceted property management experience to SUHRCO, with a background that includes REIT, fee-managed, conventional, and affordable housing assets throughout the Western Washington region. She holds an ARM accreditation through IREM and is a licensed Real Estate Broker. She currently oversees a diverse portfolio of 10 properties, extending from Bellingham to Kent. Angie is dedicated to maximizing asset performance and preserving property value, treating each client's investment with the same care and diligence as her own. She is known for her hands-on leadership style, emphasizing support, accountability, and cultivating a positive team culture that enhances productivity while minimizing workplace stress. Her well-rounded background and strategic mindset consistently yield operational efficiency and measurable financial results.

Originally from Northern Ontario, Canada, Angie moved to the U.S. at the age of 20. Outside of her professional pursuits, she enjoys artistic expression, live music, weekend travel, and spending time with animals and in nature.
